THE DAVIES FAMILY BORDEAUX PARCEL

The Davies family have been passionate about great wine since our wine merchants established in 1875.

We have many old friends in Bordeaux, who have been making wine for generations and each year we aim to buy wines we think would be perfect for this part of our list. These well-known and highly regarded wines are impressively good value for their quality and complexity and are often significantly more expensive than you see below.

We hope you enjoy this hand-picked selection.

Tom Davies Brakspear CEO

- A Relais de la Dominique 2012 Bottle £40
St Emilion Grand Cru
Second wine of Château La Dominique, this wine is delicate and smooth with an expressive nose of ripe berry fruits and spices. Very pleasant on the palate with gentle tannin.
- B Fiefs de Lagrange 2011 Bottle £42
St Julien
Typically full and rounded Cabernet Cassis with hints of smoke, good amplitude and plenty of fruit on the finish. The second wine of the famed Château Lagrange.
- C Château Beaumont 2012 Bottle £47.5
Cru Bourgeois Haut-Medoc
A beautifully balanced wine with stunning rich black fruit and subtle hints of spice. Full, fine and ripe tannins give the wine brilliant structure and length.
- D La Réserve de Leoville Barton 2012 Bottle £55
St Julien Magnum £100
Generally considered as one of the best 2nd growth Bordeaux there is, with exceptional terroir producing dense and complex wines at incredible value for money. Showing great purity of fruit and wonderfully approachable.
- E Château Batailley 2008 Bottle £65
Paulliac
A super vintage for drinking now and great value in comparison to other more famed vintages of the decade. Beautifully defined with touches of mulberry, wild strawberry and cedar. Impressively fine tannins and a caressing texture.
